

BIHAR MATERNITY BENEFIT RULES, 1964]

Notification No. II/M1-101/64-L&E—10642 the 21st November, 1964.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 28 of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 (53 of 1961), the Governor of Bihar is pleased to make the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (1) of the said section of the said Act, namely :—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Bihar Maternity Benefit Rules, 1964.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definition.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) the "Act" means the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 (53 of 1961);
- (b) "Competent Authority" means in relation to establishments other than mines, the Chief Inspector appointed under sub-section (2) of section 8 of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948) and includes a Deputy Chief Inspector of Factories ;
- (c) "Establishment" wherever used in these rules will refer to an establishment other than a mine to which the Act applies or has been applied ;
- (d) "Form" means a form appended to these rules ;
- (e) "Muster Roll" means a muster roll maintained under rule 3;
- (f) "Registered Medical Practitioner" means a medical practitioner whose name has been enrolled in a register maintained under any law for the time being in force regulating the registration of practitioners of medicines ;
- (g) "Section" means a section of the Act ;
- (h) All other words and expressions used hereinafter and not defined in these rules but defined in the Act shall have the same meaning as respectively assigned to them in the Act.

3. Muster Roll.—(1) The employer of every establishment in which women are employed shall prepare and maintain a muster roll in Form "A" and shall enter therein particulars of all women workers employed in the establishment, in the manner required therein :

Provided that the Inspector, if he is satisfied that any register or record maintained by any establishment in any other form furnishes all the required particulars, may in writing direct that the said Register or record be treated as muster roll for the purposes of this rule.

(2) All entries in the muster roll shall be made in ink and maintained up to date and it shall always be made available for inspection by the Inspector during the normal working hours of establishment.

1. Published in Bihar Gazette Part II dated 27.1.1965.

(3) The employer may enter in the muster roll such other particulars as may be required for any other purpose of the Act.

(4) Every muster roll shall be preserved for a period of two years from the date of the last entry made therein and shall be produced before an Inspector whenever required within the said period.

4. Proof.—(1) The fact that a woman is pregnant or has been delivered of a child or has undergone miscarriage or is suffering from illness arising out of pregnancy, delivery, premature birth of child or miscarriage shall be proved by the production of a certificate to the effect—

- (a) from a gazetted officer of the State or Central Govt.; or
- (b) from an officer of the establishment in which the woman was employed holding a supervisory or managerial rank; or
- (c) from a member of Parliament, State Legislature, the Local Municipality, or Notified Area Committee, or any other local Authority ; or
- (d) from a Registered Medical Practitioner, Vaid, Hakim or Kaviraj.

The certificate shall ordinarily be in Form "B", but a certificate in any other form shall also be accepted by the employer provided it furnishes all the relevant informations.

(2) The fact that a woman has been confined may also be proved by the production of a certified extract from a birth register maintained under the provisions of any law for the time being in force or a certificate signed by a registered midwife.

(3) The fact that a woman has undergone miscarriage may also be proved by the production of a certificate signed by a registered midwife.

(4) The fact of death of a woman or a child may be proved by the production of a certificate to the effect in Form "C" from any of the persons referred to in sub-rule (1) or by production of a certified extract from a death register maintained under the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

(5) The certificate from a registered midwife shall be in form 'D'.

5. Payment of maternity and other benefit.—(1) A woman employed in any establishment and entitled to maternity benefit shall give notice to her employer in Form 'E' and the employer shall make payment of the maternity benefit and any other amount due under the Act to the woman concerned, or in case of her death before receiving such maternity benefit or amount, or where the employer is liable for maternity benefit under the second proviso to sub-section (3) of section 5 to the person nominated by the woman in her notice in Form 'E' and in case there is no nominee to her legal representative.

(2) In case of doubt the maternity benefit or other amount due to a woman shall be deposited by the employer, within two months of the date of death of the woman concerned with the Competent Authority who shall after making necessary enquiries, pay it to the person who in his opinion is entitled to receive it.

(3) Whenever the payment referred to in sub-rule (1) is made, a receipt shall be obtained by the employer in Form 'F' from the person to whom the payment is made. In cases falling under sub-rule (2), a receipt shall be given to the employer by the Competent Authority.

(4) The medical bonus shall be paid along with the second instalment of the maternity benefit.

(5) The maternity benefit or any other amount payable under section 7 shall be paid within two months of the date of death of the women entitled to receive such benefit or amount.

(6) The wages payable under section 9 shall be paid to the woman entitled to receive such wages within forty-eight hours of production by her of the certificate in Form 'B' or Form 'D'.

(7) The wages payable under section 10 shall be paid to the woman entitled to receive such wages within forty-eight hours of the production of the proof described in rule 4.

6. Break for nursing child.—Each of the two breaks mentioned in section 11 shall be of fifteen minutes' duration. In addition to these fifteen minutes sufficient time shall be allowed at each break to cover the distance from the place of work to the creche or to the place where the children are left by woman while on duty and back, provided it shall not be of less than five minutes and more than fifteen minutes. If any dispute arises regarding the total period of break, the matter shall be referred to the Competent Authority whose decision shall be final and binding.

7. Duties and powers of the competent authority and Inspectors.—(1) The Competent Authority shall be responsible for the administration of these rules throughout the State of Bihar, except mines.

(2) Every Inspector shall discharge his duties within the area assigned to him by the State Government and shall act under the supervision and control of the Competent Authority.

<sup>1</sup>[(3) Every Inspector shall at each inspection of an establishment verify and satisfy himself—]

- (a) whether due action has been taken on every notice given under section 6;
- (b) whether the Muster Roll prescribed under rule 3 is correctly maintained;
- (c) whether there have been any cases of discharge or dismissal or notices of discharge or dismissal in contravention of the provisions of section 12 since the last inspection;
- (d) whether the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 4, sub-sections (5) and (6) of section 6, sections 8, 9, 10, 11, 19 and 13 have been complied with and whether amounts due have been paid within the prescribed time;
- (e) whether there have been any cases of deprivation of maternity benefit or medical bonus in contravention of sub-section (2) of section 12; and

1. Subs. by S. O. 1135 dated 15.7.1974.

(f) how far irregularities pointed out at previous inspections have been remedied and how far orders previously issued have been complied with.

(4) Without any prejudice to the powers conferred by section 15 of the Act an Inspector may—

- (a) carry out such inspection, investigation and enquiry and require the production of such papers, records, registers or documents as he may consider necessary to ascertain that the provisions of the Act and these rules are being complied with and are not or have not been contravened;
- (b) ask an employer in writing to furnish such informations within a specified time, as may be relevant to the enforcement of the Act and these rules and as may be required in connection with any complaint made to him or with any contravention reported to him or brought to his notice;
- (c) ask an employer in writing to furnish such figures and statistics within a specified time, as may be required for the compilation of any statistics or data relating to the employment of woman or enforcement of the Act and these rules;
- (d) issue an inspection note to the employer mentioning therein the defects, irregularities or violations observed by him, or issue an order directing the employer to rectify or remove within a specified time any defect, irregularity or contravention observed by him, and to report compliance to him, whether any prosecution in respect thereof is instituted or not, and
- (e) institute and conduct any prosecution in any Court of Law against an employer for any contravention of any of the provisions of the Act and these rules.

8. Acts which constitute gross misconduct.—The following acts shall constitute gross misconduct for the purpose of section 12, namely :—

FORM K

(See Rule 15)

(Abstract of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961, and the rules made thereunder.)

1. No employer shall knowingly employ a woman during the six weeks immediately following the day of her delivery or miscarriage and no woman shall work in any establishment during the said period.

2. No pregnant woman shall on a request being made by her in this behalf, be required by her employer to do during the period of one month immediately preceding the period of six weeks before the date of her expected delivery and also for any period during this period of six weeks for which she does not avail of leave of absence, any work which is of an arduous nature or which involves long hours of standing, or which in any way is likely to interfere with her pregnancy or the normal development of the foetus, or is likely to cause her miscarriage or otherwise to adversely affect her health.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Act, every woman who has actually worked in an establishment of the employer whom she claims maternity benefit for a period of not less than one hundred and sixty days, including the days during which she was laid off, shall be entitled to, and her employer shall be liable for the payment of maternity benefit at the rate of her average daily wages, or one rupee a day, whichever is higher, for the period of her actual absence not exceeding six weeks immediately preceding and including the day of her delivery and for the six weeks immediately following that day ;

Provided that the qualifying period of one hundred and sixty days aforesaid shall not apply to a woman who has immigrated into the State of Assam and was pregnant at the time of the immigration :

Provided further that where a woman dies during the period for which maternity benefit is payable to her, the benefit shall be payable only for the days up to and including the day of her death. However, where the woman having been delivered of a child, dies during her delivery or during the period of six weeks immediately following the date of her delivery, leaving behind in either case the child, the employer shall be liable for the payment of maternity benefit for the entire period of six weeks immediately following the day of her delivery but if the child also dies during the said period then, for the days up to and including the day of the death of the child.

(2) The amount of maternity benefit for the period preceding the date of her expected delivery shall be paid in advance by the employer to the woman on production of a certificate in Form 'B' stating that she is pregnant and is expected to be delivered of a child within six weeks of the date of production of the certificate, and the amount due for the subsequent period shall be paid by the employer to the woman within forty-eight hours of production of the certificate in Form 'B' or Form 'D' stating that she has been delivered of a child on production of a certified extract from a birth register maintained under the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

4. (1) Any woman employed in an establishment and entitled to maternity benefit under the provisions of this Act may give notice in writing in Form 'E' to her employer stating that her maternity benefit and any other amount to which she may be entitled under this Act may be paid to her or to such persons as she may nominate in the notice and that she will not work in any establishment during the period for which she receives maternity benefit.

(2) In the case of a woman who is pregnant, such notice shall state the date from which she will be absent from work, not being a date earlier than six weeks from the date of her expected delivery.

(3) Any woman who has not given the notice when she was pregnant may give notice as soon as possible after the delivery.

(4) On receipt of the notice the employer shall permit such woman to absent herself from the establishment until the expiry of six weeks after the day of her delivery.

5. (1) Every woman entitled to maternity benefit under the Act shall also be entitled to receive from her employer a medical bonus of twenty-five rupees, if no pre-natal confinement and post-natal care is provided for by the employer free of charge. The medical bonus shall be paid along with the second instalment of a maternity benefit.

(2) In case of miscarriage, a woman shall, on production of a Certificate in Form 'B' or Form 'D' be entitled to leave with wages at the rate of maternity benefit, for a period of six weeks immediately following the day of her miscarriage. The wages shall be paid within 48 hours of production of the certificate in Form 'B' or Form 'D'.

(3) A woman suffering from illness arising out of pregnancy, delivery, premature birth or miscarriage shall, on production of a certificate in Form
