Subject: Implementation of National Disaster Management Guidelines and Publications at the District Level

Dear madam,

On the occasion of the 20th Formation Day of the National Disaster Management Authority (NDMA) on 28th September 2024, we launched several key guidelines and publications aimed at enhancing disaster preparedness and resilience across the country. These documents are part of our ongoing efforts to build a safer and disaster-resilient India, ensuring that every district and community is equipped to handle and recover from disaster situations effectively.

2. We are pleased to share with you the following newly published guidelines and resources:

- (i) Guidelines on Disaster Management Exercises (DMEx)
- (ii) Guidelines on International Humanitarian Assistance and Disaster Relief (HADR)
- (iii) Guidelines for Establishment and Operation of Emergency Operations Centre (EOC)
- (iv) Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) on Off-Site Emergency Action Plan
- (v) Guidelines on Community-Based Disaster Risk Reduction (CBDRR)
- (vi) Yuva Aapda Mitra Scheme along with its Handbook
- (vii) Coffee Table Book (20th Formation Day of NDMA)

3. Additionally, we have also published the following documents to further guide disaster management practices at the national level:

- i SFDRR Midterm Review Voluntary National Report – INDIA 2023
- ii Proceedings on "Workshop for the Decentralised Weather and Climate Monitoring and Dissemination of Early Warning Information in India"
- iii Proceedings of National Workshop on Heat Wave 2024
- iv Technical & Administrative Glossary for Disaster Management

4. These guidelines and publications are critical resources in strengthening disaster management capacities at all levels of governance. We request your esteemed office to take necessary action for the effective implementation of these guidelines at the "State / District level".
5. Ensuring the integration of these frameworks will enable us to benefit the public by improving disaster risk reduction, early warning systems, and emergency response capabilities.
6. Kindly review and initiate the dissemination and adoption of these documents within your State and District authorities to ensure that the necessary measures are in place. We trust that with your cooperation, these guidelines will serve as valuable tools in making our communities safer and more resilient in the face of disasters.
7. We look forward to your continued support in building a disaster-resilient India.

Regards,

Yours faithfully,

(Mrinalini Shrivastava)
