A Brief on the proposed initiatives:

The Labour Resources and Migrant Workers Welfare Department, Government of Bihar, invites proposal for Establishing and Operating Residential Special Training Centre/ School for rescued child labours between the age group 6-14 Years. The rescued child labour shall be of 6-14 years, at the time of admission to the centre and may be kept there upto a maximum age of 18 years.

The Labour Resources and Migrant Workers Welfare Department, Government of Bihar seeks sealed proposals (Two small envelopes separately for technical and financial bids kept in a super envelop.) for single year grants aimed at supporting Residential Special Training Centre/School for rescued child labour between the age group of 6-14 Years. These rescued child labour will be necessarily be produced before child welfare committee (CWC) before admitting in Residential Special Training Centre/School

The large number of child labour rescued inside state or in other parts of the country need care, support and formal training in the area of their interest, so that they again do not become part of vicious cycle of child labour. The objective is not only limited to bring them out of the vicious cycle of child labour but also to prepare them for the main stream society and to assist them in their career progression either through education or domain skill training as per their choice. The selected organization will be expected to take utmost care of child and to counsel and facilitate them for their career progression decisions.

In order to provide support to the needs and aspirations of these children, the Labour Resources and Migrant Workers Welfare Department, Government of Bihar would provide financial support for setting up Residential Special Training Centre/Schools. Such schools shall provide a space for children where they can learn, get training in the area of their interest, play, use their time productively and engage themselves in creative activities through music, dance, yoga & meditation, computers, indoor and outdoor games etc. The effort would be to take them to mainstream education, acquire formal degree/certificate as well as get practical know how to enable them to be rehabilitated in society.

These activities would encourage meaningful peer group participation and interaction. This will ensure their overall growth and development and keep them away from deviant behaviours in addition to fulfilling their basic daily requirements like food, nutrition and health. These Residential Training Centre/ schools shall also have provisions for health care, counselling guidance and life skill education for channelling these children's energy into productive endeavours.

Purpose of the RFP:

Labour Resources and Migrant Workers Welfare Department, Government of Bihar through this notice invites proposals from interested non-governmental organizations for establishment and operation of Residential Special Training Centre/ School one each in four districts viz. Nawada, Nalanda, Banka & Jamui of Bihar, wherein the organization (s) have to create suitable infrastructure and man power for establishing and operating Residential Special Training Centre/School for at least 100 rescued child labour per Centre.

Earnest Money Deposit (EMD):

An Organization can apply for more than one Residential Special Training Centre/ School of different districts, however it has to submit for each Residential Special Training Centre/School applied for, an interest free EMD of Rs.3,50,000.00 (Three lakh fifty thousand) in the form of a Demand Draft drawn from a scheduled bank in favour of Additional Chief Secretary, Labour Resources and Migrant Workers Welfare Department, Payable at Patna.

For Example: If the organization applies for two districts (i.e. for two centre) then it has to submit Demand Draft of Rs. 7,00,000/- and similarly if it applies for the three centres then it has to submit Demand Draft of Rs. 10,50,000/- and likewise.

The organization applying for more than one district will have to submit separate demand draft for each district. Consolidated DD will not be accepted and its will be rejected.

On the back of demand draft, the organizations need to mention the Residential Special Training Centre/ School district, (applied for) Name of the Organization, Contact Details of the applicant.

The EMD of unsuccessful organization will be returned within a period of 6 months from the date of opening of this RFP. The EMD of a successful Organization will be returned upon submission of required performance guarantee or can be adjusted against the required performance guarantee.

The EMD may be forfeited:

- If a bidder withdraws its bid during the period of Bid Validity
- In case of a successful bidder, if the bidder fails to submit the required Performance Bank Guarantee and within 30 days of issue of Letter of Award (LOA) enter into the agreement.

Performance Guarantee (PG):

An Organization has to submit for each allotted school, a performance Bank Guarantee of INR Rs. 7,00,000.00 (Rs. Seven lakh only) in the form of an irrevocable unconditional bank Guarantee valid for 36 months issued from a schedule bank in favour of Additional Chief Secretary, Labour Resources and Migrant Workers Welfare Department, Payable at Patna or in the form of Demand Draft within 30 days of issuing of Letter of Award and have to enter into the Agreement.

In case, the Organization fails to submit the required PG for the allotted school, then the EMD For that school will be forfeited. The PG may be forfeited if their performance is found to be unsatisfactory or the organization engages itself in unwarranted/undesirable activities i.e. other than the purpose for which such school has been allotted to the Organization besides liabilities towards prosecution under appropriate law. The PG will be returned within six months from end of the period of allotment for that school. In case of extension of period of allotment, the PG will have to be extended for further period and will be returned within six months from the end of extended period of allotment for the school.

Terms of Payment and other Terms and Conditions:

- A. The grant will be paid in quarterly instalments. The first grant will be advance, of an amount of 03 months budgeted out-lay of the annual agreement amount, against submission of a bank guarantee of equal amount valid for 12 months from the date of agreement. Subsequent grant will be due and paid within one week of the end of the earlier quarter on submission of utilization certificate, based on the actual number of rescued child labours residing in the facility. Statutory deductions (if applicable) will be made on applicable rates.
- B. Cost Escalation: A cost escalation of maximum of 5% per annum (to be decided as per mutual agreement at the beginning of every subsequent year from the date of signing of agreement) in the quoted rate will be paid by the department subject to yearly performance appraisal.
- C. The prime responsibility of admitting the rescued child labours for Residential Special Training Centre/ School will be of the selected organization only. However the department will use its best endeavours and state machineries to assist the selected organization in admitting the rescued child labours.
- D. Please note that the organization will be paid grant for the rescued child labour having age 6-14 years at the time of admission to such centre. However the grant will be paid for each such child who resides there till the age of 18 Years.
- E. The Department in addition to Grant per child will pay & bear the cost of skill training (like refundable security deposit charged from the candidate), if any, undertaken by the child after the age of 18 years for domain skill training sponsored by Government of Bihar/ India.
- F. The organization will have to keep in place appropriate safety measures for the safety of the children, personnel deployed there in and of the available infrastructures.
- G. Day & Night Attendance System (biometric if possible), CCTV on a daily basis should be maintained at the centre and should be made available for departmental verification.

Period of allotment of Residential Special Training Centre/ School

Eligible Organization shall be allotted such school for a period of 3 years from the date of opening of the School. The period of allotment shall be extended for subsequent years based on the performance. However, there shall be annual review of performance of the school. The first performance review will be conducted in the 9th month from the date of starting of school. The performance weightage criteria will be set by the Department. If two annual consecutive performances is not found satisfactory, then the organization may be removed/ de-empanelled. The Performance Review Criteria are given in the Annexure. The decision of the department will be final and conclusive for the performance reviews.

Jurisdiction

All disputes and differences, whatsoever shall be subject to the courts at Patna, Bihar which shall be the court having jurisdiction to entertain and try the matter.
