

SOCIAL AUDIT SOCIETY, BIHAR

Social audit Society is registered under society act 1860, under Rural Development department, government of Bihar. In pursuance of Section 17(1) of the MGNREGA, 2005, Gram Sabha is required to conduct regular social audits of all the projects under the MGNREGA's scheme taken up within the Gram Panchayat. The ministry of Rural Development, in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor General (C&AG), notified the Audit of scheme Rules, 2011 under section (1) of section 24 of the Act, principles of conducting social audits should follow the provisions of the act, bring more transparency and accountability through involvement of community.

Social audit is an audit that is conducted by the people, especially by those people who are affected by, or are the intended beneficiaries of the scheme being audited and facilitated by the government. Hence, Social audit can be described as verification of the implementation of a programme/Scheme and its results by the community with the active involvement of the primary stakeholder. This is done by the comparing official records with actual ground realities with the participation of the community in the verification exercise and reading out the finding of the verification exercise aloud in a public platform. Oral testimonies and facts are obtained from the public and compared with the official records. The Social audit process also examines whether the money was spent properly and has made a difference to people's lives.

This society will conduct social audit of different programme/schemes of Rural Development Department, Bihar primarily MGNREGA, Indira AwasYojna/Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojna, and Lohiya Swachh Bihar Abhiyan (LSBA). In addition to this, society will do social audit for Food and Consumer Protection Department and Har Ghar Nalka Jal(PHED) Bihar. As per the notification or by the order of state government this society can do social audit of any schemes/programme.
